What You Need To Know About Franchising Generally

Continuing responsibility to pay fees. You may have to pay royalties and other fees even if you are losing money.

Business model can change. The franchise agreement may allow the franchisor to change its manuals and business model without your consent. These changes may require you to make additional investments in your franchise business or may harm your franchise business.

Supplier restrictions. You may have to buy or lease items from the franchisor or a limited group of suppliers the franchisor designates. These items may be more expensive than similar items you could buy on your own.

Operating restrictions. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business during the term of the franchise. There are usually other restrictions. Some examples may include controlling your location, your access to customers, what you sell, how you market, and your hours of operation.

Competition from franchisor. Even if the franchise agreement grants you a territory, the franchisor may have the right to compete with you in your territory.

Renewal. Your franchise agreement may not permit you to renew. Even if it does, you may have to sign a new agreement with different terms and conditions in order to continue to operate your franchise business.

When your franchise ends. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business after your franchise ends even if you still have obligations to your landlord or other creditors.

Some States Require Registration

Your state may have a franchise law, or other law, that requires franchisors to register before offering or selling franchises in the state. Registration does not mean that the state recommends the franchise or has verified the information in this document. To find out if your state has a registration requirement, or to contact your state, use the agency information in Exhibit A.

Your state also may have laws that require special disclosures or amendments be made to your franchise agreement. If so, you should check the State Specific Addenda. See the Table of Contents for the location of the State Specific Addenda.

Special Risks to Consider About This Franchise

Certain states require that the following risk(s) be highlighted:

1. Out-of-State Dispute Resolution. The Franchise Agreement and Area Development Agreement require you to resolve disputes with the franchisor by litigation only in the then-current city of the franchisor's principal business office, which is currently Atlanta, Georgia. Out-of-state litigation may force you to accept a less favorable settlement for disputes. It may also cost you more to litigate with the franchisor in a state other than in your own state.

Certain states may require other risks to be highlighted. Check the "State Specific Addenda" (if any) to see whether your state requires other risks to be highlighted.

THE FOLLOWING PROVISIONS APPLY ONLY TO TRANSACTIONS GOVERNED BY THE MICHIGAN FRANCHISE INVESTMENT LAW

THE STATE OF MICHIGAN PROHIBITS CERTAIN UNFAIR PROVISIONS THAT ARE SOMETIMES IN FRANCHISE DOCUMENTS. IF ANY OF THE FOLLOWING PROVISIONS ARE IN THESE FRANCHISE DOCUMENTS, THE PROVISIONS ARE VOID AND CANNOT BE ENFORCED AGAINST YOU:

(a) A prohibition on the right of a franchisee to join an association of franchisees.

(b) A requirement that a franchisee assent to a release, assignment, novation, waiver, or estoppel which deprives a franchisee of rights and protections provided in this act. This shall not preclude a franchisee, after entering into a franchise agreement, from settling any and all claims.

(c) A provision that permits a franchisor to terminate a franchise prior to the expiration of its term except for good cause. Good cause shall include the failure of the franchisee to comply with any lawful provision of the franchise agreement and to cure such failure after being given written notice thereof and a reasonable opportunity, which in no event need be more than 30 days, to cure such failure.

(d) A provision that permits a franchisor to refuse to renew a franchise without fairly compensating the franchisee by repurchase or other means for the fair market value at the time of expiration of the franchisee's inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures, and furnishings. Personalized materials which have no value to the franchisor and inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures, and furnishings not reasonably required in the conduct of the franchise business are not subject to compensation. This subsection applies only if: (i) the term of the franchise is less than 5 years and (ii) the franchisee is prohibited by the franchise or other agreement from continuing to conduct substantially the same business under another trademark, service mark, trade name, logotype, advertising, or other commercial symbol in the same area subsequent to the expiration of the franchise or the franchisee does not receive at least 6 months advance notice of franchisor's intent not to renew the franchise.

(e) A provision that permits the franchisor to refuse to renew a franchise on terms generally available to other franchisees of the same class or type under similar circumstances. This section does not require a renewal provision.

(f) A provision requiring that arbitration or litigation be conducted outside this state. This shall not preclude the franchisee from entering into an agreement, at the time of arbitration, to conduct arbitration at a location outside this state.

(g) A provision which permits a franchisor to refuse to permit a transfer of ownership of a franchise, except for good cause. This subdivision does not prevent a franchisor from exercising a right of first refusal to purchase the franchise. Good cause shall include, but is not limited to:

(1) The failure of the proposed transferee to meet the franchisor's then current reasonable qualifications or standards.

(2) The fact that the proposed transferee is a competitor of the franchisor or subfranchisor.

(3) The unwillingness of the proposed transferee to agree in writing to comply with all lawful obligations.

(4) The failure of the franchisee or proposed transferee to pay any sums owing to the franchisor or to cure any default in the franchise agreement existing at the time of the proposed transfer.

(h) A provision that requires the franchisee to resell to the franchisor items that are not uniquely identified with the franchisor. This subdivision does not prohibit a provision that grants to a franchisor a right of first refusal to purchase the assets of a franchise on the same terms and conditions as a bona fide third party willing and able to purchase those assets, nor does this subdivision prohibit a provision that grants the franchisor the right to acquire the assets of a franchise for the market or appraised value of such assets if the franchisee has breached the lawful provisions of the franchise agreement and has failed to cure the breach in the manner provided in subdivision (c).

(i) A provision which permits the franchisor to directly or indirectly convey, assign, or otherwise transfer its obligations to fulfill contractual obligations to the franchisee unless provision has been made for providing the required contractual services.

If the franchisor's most recent financial statements are unaudited and show a net worth of less than $100,000.00, the franchisee may request the franchisor to arrange for the escrow of initial investment and other funds paid by the franchisee until the obligations, if any, of the franchisor to provide real estate, improvements, equipment, inventory, training or other items included in the franchise offering are fulfilled. At the option of the franchisor, a surety bond may be provided in place of escrow.

ITEM 1
THE FRANCHISOR, AND ANY PARENTS, PREDECESSORS AND AFFILIATES

To simplify the language in this franchise disclosure document, "we" or "us" means Buffalo Wild Wings International, Inc., the franchisor. "You" means the person or entity that buys the franchise. If you are a corporation, partnership or other entity, your Principal Owners must sign a Guaranty and Assumption of Obligations, which means that all of the provisions of the Area Development Agreement (Exhibit D) and Franchise Agreement (Exhibits C and C-1, C-2, or C-3 if applicable) also will apply to them. "Principal Owners" means any person or entity who, when or after you sign the Area Development Agreement or Franchise Agreement, directly or indirectly owns a 10% or greater interest in you. However, if we sign the agreement totally or partially based on the financial qualifications, experience, skills or managerial qualifications of any person or entity who directly or indirectly owns less than a 10% interest in you, we also may designate that person or entity as a Principal Owner.

We are an Ohio corporation incorporated on May 21, 1990, under the name bw-3 Franchise Systems, Inc. We changed our name to Buffalo Wild Wings International, Inc. on March 26, 2001. Our principal business address is Three Glenlake Pkwy NE, Atlanta, Georgia 30328. We do business under the name "Buffalo Wild Wings" and "Buffalo Wild Wings GO." We have no predecessors. We began offering franchises in the United States in April 1991 under the names "bw-3" and "Buffalo Wild Wings and Weck." In 1997 we began converting our franchise network from the "bw-3" brand to the BUFFALO WILD WINGS® brand. As of December 31, 2023, there were 1,185 Buffalo Wild Wings Sports Bars operating in the United States (533 franchised and 652 company-owned) and 65 franchised Buffalo Wild Wings or B-Dubs restaurants operating internationally.

Except as noted in this Item, we do not offer, and have never offered, franchises in any other line of business. We have never operated a Buffalo Wild Wings Sports Bar (defined below), although our related companies have owned and operated Buffalo Wild Wings Sports Bars since 1982. We have no other business activities except those described here. If we have an agent for service of process in your state, we disclose that agent in Exhibit A.

The Buffalo Wild Wings Sports Bar Franchise Opportunity

We grant franchises for, and some of our affiliates operate, sports entertainment-oriented, casual/fast casual restaurants/sports bars that feature chicken wings, sandwiches and other products, beverages and services using our certain standards and specifications and otherwise operate under the System (defined below) and the Trademarks (defined below). We call these establishments "Buffalo Wild Wings Sports Bars," and we call the Buffalo Wild Wings Sports Bar that you operate under the Franchise Agreement your "Sports Bar." Your Sports Bar will offer the Menu Items (defined below) and operate at a location we accept (the "Authorized Location") and within a trade area that we designate (the "Designated Area"). The "System" means the Buffalo Wild Wings® System, which consists of distinctive food and beverage products prepared according to special and confidential recipes and formulas with distinctive storage, preparation, service and delivery procedures and techniques, offered in a setting of distinctive exterior and interior layout, design and color scheme, signage, furnishings and materials and using certain distinctive types of facilities, equipment, supplies, ingredients, business techniques, methods and procedures, together with sales promotion programs, all of which we may periodically modify and change. "Trademarks" means the BUFFALO WILD WINGS® trademark and service mark and other trademarks, service marks, trade names and logos, as we may periodically modify and change them, and the Trade Dress and other commercial symbols used in the Sports Bar. "Trade Dress" includes the designs, color schemes and image we periodically authorize you to use in operating the Sports Bar, as we may periodically modify them. "Menu Items" means the chicken wings, sandwiches and other products and beverages prepared according to our specified recipes and procedures, as we may periodically modify and change them, that we periodically authorize for sale at your Sports Bar.

We are currently offering franchises and development rights for full-size Buffalo Wild Wings Sports Bars. But we and our affiliates are always evaluating additional restaurant concepts or other means to deliver products and services to the marketplace, whether on a short-term or long-term basis.

We offer to qualified entities the right to develop multiple Buffalo Wild Wings Sports Bars within a protected territory ("Development Territory") under the terms of the Area Development Agreement. The Area Development Agreement will specify the number of Buffalo Wild Wings Sports Bars you will develop over a specified period (the "Development Schedule"). Either you or approved Developer Subsidiaries (defined below) may develop the Buffalo Wild Wings Sports Bars in the Development Territory. "Developer Subsidiary" means a corporation, limited liability company or other business entity of which you own (directly or indirectly) 100% of the issued and outstanding ownership interests. You or your Developer Subsidiary will sign our then current form of Franchise Agreement for each Buffalo Wild Wings Sports Bar developed in the Development Territory, which currently is the form of Franchise Agreement in this disclosure document but could in the future differ from that form. However, if you fully comply with the Area Development Agreement, each Franchise Agreement that the Area Development Agreement covers will reflect the royalty and franchise fee specified in Items 5 and 6.

We also offer to qualified entities the right to develop a Buffalo Wild Wings Sports Bar at certain locations that are by their nature are unique and separate in character from sites generally developed as a Buffalo Wild Wings Sports Bar. Those locations ("Non-Traditional Locations") include, but are not limited to: (a) military bases and other governmental facilities; (b) universities, schools and other education facilities; (c) airports, train stations, toll plazas and other public or restricted-access transportation facilities or terminals; (d) stadiums, arenas, theaters and other sports and entertainment venues; (e) amusement parks, theme parks, museums, zoos, and other similar public facilities; (f) cafeterias, food courts and other foodservice locations within shopping centers, shopping malls, office buildings/corporate campuses, industrial buildings, and department stores, grocery stores, and similar retail stores; (g) hotels, casinos and convention centers; (h) hospitals, nursing facilities and other medical facilities; and (i) reservations and other sovereign territories. You will sign our then current form of Franchise Agreement and Non-Traditional Rider for each Buffalo Wild Wings Sports Bar developed at a Non-Traditional Location.

Multi-Brand Locations

We have an arrangement with Arby's Franchisor, LLC, Dunkin' Donuts Franchising LLC, Baskin-Robbins Franchising LLC, Jimmy John's Franchisor SPV, LLC, and Sonic Franchising LLC (each an "Other Franchisor") whereby we, together with the applicable Other Franchisor(s), may offer certain qualified prospects the right to develop and operate a Buffalo Wild Wings Sports Bar at the same location as, and in combination with, an Arby's® restaurant, Dunkin'® restaurant, Baskin-Robbins® restaurant, Jimmy John's® restaurant, and/or Sonic® restaurant (collectively, the "Other Restaurants" and together with a Buffalo Wild Wings Sports Bar, the "Multi-Brand Location").

We expect Multi-Brand Locations to contain a Buffalo Wild Wings Sports Bar and one or more Other Restaurants. The Multi-Brand Location will offer and sell a range of products authorized to be sold under the System and Trademarks, and the franchise system and trademarks of the Other Franchisor(s). The Buffalo Wild Wings Sports Bar and Other Restaurant(s) operating from the Multi-Brand Location may require separate point of sale systems, employees, uniforms, branding, and more for each restaurant.

To operate a Buffalo Wild Wings Sports Bar at a Multi-Brand Location, you (and/or your affiliate) must (i) enter into a Franchise Agreement and the Multi-Brand Addendum attached to this disclosure document as Exhibit C-3 (the "Multi-Brand Addendum" or "MBA") with us for the operation of a Buffalo

Wild Wings Sports Bar, and (ii) enter into a franchise and multi-brand addendum for the applicable Other Restaurant(s) with each applicable Other Franchisor for the operation of the Other Restaurant (collectively, each an "Other Franchise Agreement"). We will not grant you the right to operate a Buffalo Wild Wings Sports Bar at a Multi-Brand Location unless each applicable Other Franchisor grants you the right to operate the Other Restaurant and permits that Other Restaurant to be operated at a Multi-Brand Location. The terms each Other Franchisor's franchise offering, franchise agreement, and related agreements are disclosed in the Other Franchisor's franchise disclosure document, which you must obtain from that Other Franchisor.

Unless otherwise noted, the disclosures in this disclosure document apply to Buffalo Wild Wings Sports Bars that are operated at Multi-Brand Locations.

The BWW-GO Restaurants

We also grant franchises for restaurants that feature chicken wings and other food and beverage products primarily for off-premises consumption using our standards and specifications and that operate under the Buffalo Wild Wings GO® trademarks. We call these establishments "BWW-GO Restaurants." We have offered franchises for BWW-GO Restaurants since December 2020. We have never operated a BWW-GO Restaurant, although our affiliates have operated BWW-GO Restaurants since May 2020. As of December 31, 2023, there were 79 BWW-GO Restaurants operating in the United States (31 franchised and 48 company-owned), of those all were singled-branded Buffalo Wild Wings Sports Bars.

The Market and Competition

Your Sports Bar will offer food products to the general public and the sales are not seasonal. Your competitors include other bars and restaurants, particularly those offering similar food products, alcoholic beverages and video entertainment, including national or regional franchise systems and other chains. We believe that the market for delivery, carry-out and on-premises dining of chicken wings, sandwiches and other products is well developed.

Laws, Rule and Regulations

Federal and state laws exist that govern the food service industry (including health, sanitation and safety regulations regarding food storage, preparation and safety) and the sale of liquor. You must comply with these laws and other laws that apply to businesses generally. In addition to laws and regulations that apply to businesses generally, your Sports Bar must comply with various federal, state and local government regulations, including those relating to site location and building construction, such as the Americans with Disabilities Act; FDA menu labeling requirements; minimum wage laws; laws governing the storage, preparation and sale of food products, including meat products, and sale of alcoholic beverages; health, sanitation and safety regulations relating to food service; laws, ordinances, rules and regulations concerning marketing practices, including the Telephone Consumer Protection Act, CAN-SPAM Act, the Telemarketing Sales Rule; and other relevant laws (including Consumer Product Safety Improvement Act certifications for giveaways or other items in the Sports Bar characterized as "children's products"). Some state and local authorities have also adopted, or are considering adopting, laws or regulations that would affect the content or make-up of food served in Buffalo Wild Wings Sports Bars, such as the level of trans fats and sodium contained in a food item. Additionally, the Patient Protection and Affordable Health Care Act requires employers of a certain size to provide health insurance to its employees, and the Menu Labeling Provisions of the Act require certain Buffalo Wild Wings Sports Bars and retail food establishments to post caloric information on menus and menu boards and to provide additional written nutrition information to consumers upon request. You should consider these and other laws and regulations when evaluating your purchase of a franchise. It is your sole responsibility to obtain and keep in force all necessary licenses and permits that public authorities require, including an alcoholic beverage vendor's license.

Certain Buffalo Wild Wings Affiliates

We are a wholly-owned subsidiary of one of our parents, Buffalo Wild Wings, Inc., a Minnesota corporation (our "Parent") that developed the concept for the franchise being offered. Our Parent's principal business address is the same as our address.

One of our affiliates, Inspire International, Inc. ("Inspire International"), was incorporated under the name BWLD Global III, Inc. Inspire International's principal address is the same as our address. On October 14, 2021, BWLD Global III, Inc. merged with its affiliates Arby's International, Inc. and Sonic International, Inc., with Inspire International as the surviving entity. As part of that restructuring, BWLD Global III, Inc. changed its name to Inspire International, Inc. Inspire International has directly offered and granted franchises for Buffalo Wild Wings Sports Bars operating outside the United States since its formation in October 2019 and acquired the existing development agreements and franchise agreements for Buffalo Wild Wings Sports Bars outside the United States in December 2019. Inspire International, directly or through its predecessor Arby's International, Inc., has offered franchises and master franchises for Arby's restaurants outside the United States, Canada, Turkey and Qatar since May 2016. DB China has offered and sold Baskin-Robbins franchises in China since its formation in March 2006. DB Brasil has offered and sold Dunkin' and Baskin-Robbins franchises in Brazil since its formation in May 2014. DB Mexico has offered and sold Dunkin' franchises in Mexico since its formation in October 2006. BR UK has offered and sold Baskin-Robbins franchises in the UK since its formation in December 2014. Except as described herein, none of the international franchisors have offered franchises in any other line of business or operated a BWW Sports Bar.

Inspire Brands

Another of our parent companies is Inspire Brands, Inc. ("Inspire Brands"), whose principal business address is the same as our address. Inspire Brands is a global, multi-brand restaurant company, launched upon completion of the merger between a parent of the Arby's brand and a parent of the Buffalo Wild Wings brand in February 2018. Subsidiaries of Inspire Brands listed below are our affiliates who own and administer the network of franchised and company-owned restaurants operating under the Arby's, Buffalo Wild Wings, Jimmy John's, Sonic, Dunkin' and Baskin-Robbins brands. Unless otherwise stated, all Inspire Brands' subsidiaries share our principal business address. Except as described below, none of Inspire Brands' subsidiaries have ever operated or offered franchises for Buffalo Wild Wings Sports Bars or offered franchises in any other line of business.
